Is it the truth?

Is it fair to all concerned?

Will it build goodwill and better friendships?

Will it be beneficial to all concerned?

THIS WEEK – We meet at Sunrise Bistro

“If you’re going through hell, keep going.”

- Winston Churchill

From Your Editor:

Ever wonder if you picked the wrong career path... Ever want to just get out of the office? Microsoft employees can easily do this now because the company announced that it has built a group of tree house/offices on its 500 acre campus for just that purpose. It hopes the tree offices will increase employee creativity and satisfaction. After all, they are equipped with Wi-Fi, sky lights, meeting rooms and even a gas fireplace. The only catch could be the risk of what might happen if an employee who is deep in thought and looking at their phone or tablet forgets they are also 12 feet in the air. (from BID)

THE HUMOR OF MURELEEN

Editor's Note - Mureleen – another week and the humor is tinged with philosophy....

We are all born ignorant, but one must work hard to remain stupid."
~ Benjamin Franklin ~

MY TRAVEL PLANS

I have been in many places, but I've never been in Kahoots. Apparently, you can't go alone. You have to be in Kahoots with someone.

I've also never been in Cognito. I hear no one recognizes you there. I have, however, been in Sane. They don't have an airport; you have to be driven there. I have made several trips there, thanks to my children, friends, family and work.

I would like to go to Conclusions, but you have to jump, and I'm not too much on physical activity anymore.

I have also been in Doubt. That is a sad place to go, and I try not to visit there too often.

I've been in Flexible, but only when it was very important to stand firm.

Sometimes I'm in Capable, and I go there more often as I'm getting older.

One of my favorite places to be is in Suspense! It really gets the adrenaline flowing and pumps up the old heart! At my age I need all the stimuli I can get!
